

Contents

Lily Gardner Feldman
Introduction to the Present Volume.....	4
Martin Leiner
Setting the Stage: An Introductory Clarification of Concepts of East Central Europe	8
Samuel Goda
The OSCE and Reconciliation: between Theory and Practice.....	23
Raisa Barash
Mythologization of the Soviet Past and Prospects for Historical Reconciliation in Russia .....	37
Olga Konkka
Russian Internal Narratives about the “Western Enemy” as a Barrier for Reconciliation: The Example of School History Textbooks.....	51
Matthew Rojansky
Russian-Ukrainian Relations: Conflict and Reconciliation over Shared History .....	66
Karina V. Korostelina
Reconciliation in Ukraine: within and across the Boundary.....	89
Katja Wezel
Memory Conflicts as Barrier to Reconciliation: Post-Soviet Disputes between the Baltic States and Russia.....	110
Annamária Kiss
The Means and Ends of Russo-Georgian “Normalization:” What is beyond the “Red Lines”?.....	129
Jolanta Jonaszko
Disarming Memory: The Katyn Massacre and Reconciliation in Polish-Russian Relations 1990–2015.....	146
Klaus Bachmann
Polish-Ukrainian Reconciliation after World War II .....	165

Mimoza Telaku Shifra Sagy
Perceptions of Collective Narratives and Acculturation Attitudes: The case of Serbs and Albanians in Kosovo.....	184
About the Authors .....	xx